elor in Haverstraw, and the first his friends knew that he was married was when his wife sued Mrs. Caroline Scott, a rich widow, for $30,000 for the alienation of her husband's affections.

This case never came to trial, but Peck required a North Dakota divorce and then married the widow.

The deerre last evening was granted by default, Peck's lawyer sitting by and making no defense. After listening to the testimony, Judge Gaynor awarded alimony of $1,000 a year to Mrs. Peck.

The North Dakota divorce which Peck necured from his wife was declared invalid.

After getting this divorce Peck had married, in New Jersey, Mrs. Scott.

MRS. DUGGAN Says:

"I was troubled with sciatica for over four months, and was treated by three different hysicians, but received no relief. As a last resort my friends advised my trying Dr. reeme's Nervura blood and nerve remetly, which I did, and in six weeks I was a well sama. Although it was four years ago, I have had no return of the trouble.

"My sister also was troubled with rheumatism, and I advised her to try Dr. Greene's ervura, which she did, and received great relief from it. I consider Dr. Greene's lervura is godsend to me, and gladly recommend it."
